

LOOK FOR THE SYMBOL

Bike cars will be identified with the bike symbol prominently located on the windows of the car. Bike cars will be on the rear of westbound trains and the front of eastbound trains.

BOARD THE TRAIN

Enter and exit the bike cars through the center doors and insert your bike into one of the self-locking bike racks.

ENJOY THE OUTDOORS

Visit greenways-blueways.com for more info on bike trails in northwest Indiana. Go to www.nictd.com for information on Chicago and South Bend bikeways, and visitor info.

RULES OF THE ROAD

- Bicycle is defined as a standard two wheel with a maximum front tire width of 2.5" and maximum distance from front axle to rear axle of 46" (wheel base). Bicycle DOES NOT include: Recumbent, Tricycle, Tandem, Kiddie/cargo trailer.
- The train will depart the station after passengers have boarded. Please exercise caution as the train may move before your bike is inserted in the rack. Push up on the self-locking mechanism to release your bike.
- No riding on station platforms.
- Train crews have the final authority on accommodating bicycles. Crews may prohibit a cyclist from boarding due to overcrowding.
- Bikes will be handled on a first-come-first-served basis. Space is not guaranteed on an initial or return trip (including late night trains).
- Bike cars may appear during weekday service if needed for their seats BUT bikes are ONLY permitted on select weekend trains.
- Bikes may not be permitted during special event weekends such as: Blues Festival, Taste of Chicago, Lollapalooza and the Air & Water Show. Please see nictd.com for updated information.
- Bikes may not block aisles or impede passenger movement, and cyclists must accompany their bikes at all times.
- Bikes should be free of dirt and grease prior to boarding.
- Be considerate of your fellow riders by first allowing passengers using mobility devices to board and disembark.
- In the event of an emergency evacuation, cyclists must leave their bicycles on the train.

Weekend

BIKES ON TRAINS PILOT PROGRAM

NOW YOUR BIKE CAN RIDE TOO!

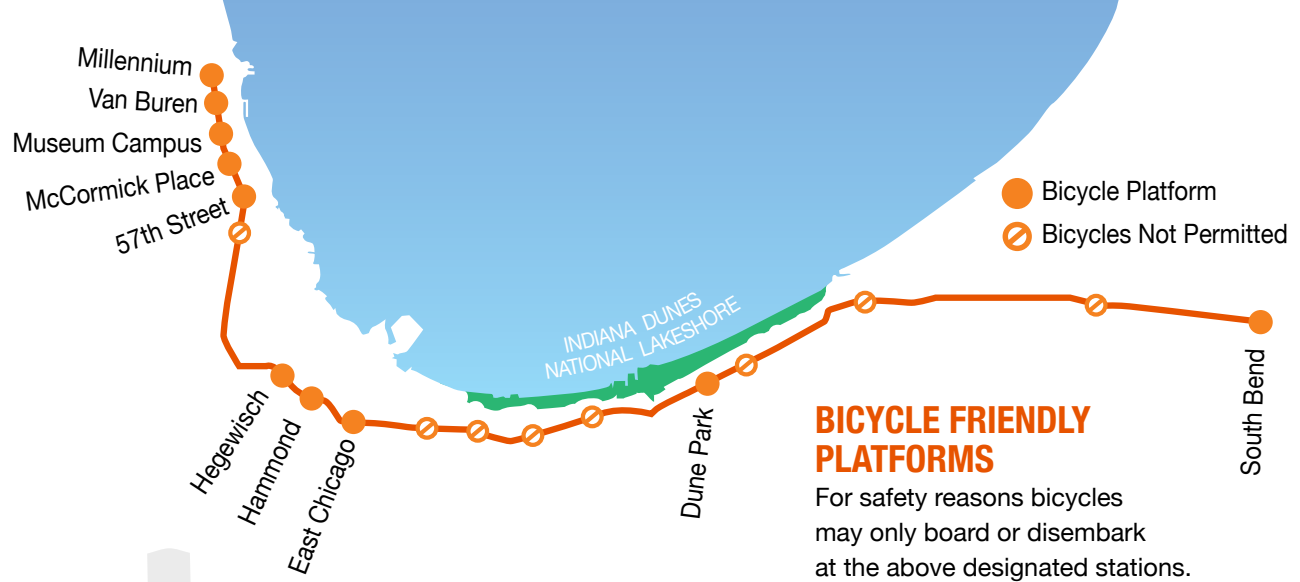

With bicycles growing in popularity across the United States, the South Shore is now testing a pilot program allowing bicycles on select weekend/holiday trains. Now bicycling enthusiasts can take their bike to Chicago, Hammond, East Chicago, Dune Park (Indiana Dunes National Lake Shore and Indiana Dunes State Park), and South Bend.

WHAT'S THE COST?

Bike racks are provided free of charge on a first-come-first-served basis.

WHEN TO RIDE?

Bike rack equipped cars will be available on select weekend/holiday trains from April 2nd through October 30, 2016. Bikes are not permitted during special Chicago events such as: Blues Festival, Taste of Chicago, Lollapalozza, and Air & Water Show. For list of trains and stations check out the accompanying map and schedule.

BICYCLE FRIENDLY PLATFORMS

For safety reasons bicycles may only board or disembark at the above designated stations.
